Canadian Rockies: August 23, 2022 Tour Travel Reservation Terms & Conditions

Deposit-Cancellation Fees

The Private Tour requires that we pay a non-refundable deposit for every passenger that we take a deposit from. We will be giving them approximately $1,500 per person within 30 days of your initial deposit. We know you have only paid us a $500 deposit. This is not a problem, we will advance the rest. Knowing you are serious and really plan to go, this is not a great risk on our part. History shows very few of our passengers ever cancel, plus the river cruise is willing to allow us to do name changes one year out for a fee. Until we are under one year from the tour start date, we know we can replace the few that will have issues and need to cancel.

Here is our cancellation policy for our special "Once in a Lifetime" Canadian Rockies Tour:

- Cancelling between your sign up date and February 1, 2022: the initial deposit of $500 is nonrefundable, but it can be transferred to another trip offered by Fun For Less Tours within 2 years of cancelling. All other monies will be returned.
- February 2, 2022 and March 31, 2022: 50% of your total invoice is non-refundable and non-transferable.
- Starting April 1, 2022: 100% of your total invoice is nonrefundable and nontransferable.
- The above cancellation policy may change and become a higher non-refundable or nontransferable amount if Fun For Less Tours has purchased non-refundable airline tickets or other non-refundable items for the passengers.
 - CHANGE POLICY: Change requests will be considered on a case-by-case basis. Adding passengers to your reservation is not necessarily considered a "change". Changes in names of passengers already booked, and changes to room or cabin reservations will be assessed a fee. Any changes to airlines, rail lines, etc will be assessed the change fees charged by the airlines, rail lines etc. Changes are subject to approval by the airlines and rail lines, etc. Change requests must be made over the phone with one of our agents and will be done only after rail line or airline approval.

Important Note: Airlines may change, cancel or discontinue flights at their discretion. Fun For Less Tours is not responsible for any costs associated with such changes.

IMPORTANT TRIP PROTECTION INFORMATION:

We strongly recommend the purchase of a Trip protection policy through Travelex, which can cover trip delays, cancellations or interruptions due to unforeseen reasons. It is important for you to understand that starting February 2, 2022, your money has been paid to our vendors and we no longer have it for reimbursement. Please refer to our cancellation policy on the previous page. The only way to protect your trip is through Trip protection.

Fun For Less Tours is not responsible for policy provisions or coverage, as this is the sole responsibility of the Trip protection company. It is your responsibility to verify and understand your coverage. Fun For Less Tours is not responsible nor liable for personal injury, accident and/or illness, or for loss, theft, or damage of luggage and/or personal items. For your own protection, it is wise to purchase Trip protection to cover these unusual circumstances.

To view our Trip protection brochure, please visit our website and click on the Trip protection link. We recommend the Travel Select policy. If you purchase the Trip protection within 21 days of booking your trip, you may receive the added benefit of the pre-existing medical condition waiver. You may also purchase the Business Upgrade within 20 days if there is a possibility you may have to cancel due to work responsibilities. (Please see brochure for details.)

If you have any questions or would like to enroll over the phone, please contact our office at 801-619-1022, or toll free at 800-591-2432.
